LIBRARY OFFERS NEW JOB SEARCH TOOL

The Southeast Steuben County Library is now offering JobNow!, a free, live job assistance website. From résumé help to practice interviews, JobNow! offers practical tools to improve the job seekers chances of finding employment.

For résumé help, job seekers should create a personal account at JobNow! and upload a current résumé. An expert will edit the résumé and then contact the job seeker by email to review the changes via instant messenger.

The site also offers mock interviews via instant messenger, a writing lab that works the same way as the résumé lab and plenty of tips and links to aid in the job search.

Finally, job seekers can build academic skills with live tutoring sessions, also by instant messenger, and practice tests.

The site can be accessed by visiting the Southeast Steuben County Library website at ssclibrary.org. Click the logo for JobNow! on our homepage. For more details, call the library reference desk at (607) 936-3713 ext. 502.
