FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GET YOUR PASSPORT TO READ AT THE SSC LIBRARY

Come to the Southeast Steuben County Library beginning July 3 to register for your "passport" to read. You will be issued a library passport with great destinations around town.

Be seen reading for 15 minutes in the seating provided at each participating destination, and be sure to keep your passport visible so that you are not "deported." After you've finished reading, get your passport stamped by an employee of the destination.

You can fill up your passport between July 3 and Aug. 16. Passports must be turned in to the Children's Desk in the library by closing time Aug. 16 to be eligible for prizes.

This program is open to all ages and is a fun way to see your town and spend some time reading. Some of the participating destinations include Conner's Mercantile where you can read on the Vera Bradley couch and get a free chocolate when you get your passport stamped and Market Street Coffee and Tea where you can read while seated on cool coffee sack beanbag chairs.

For more destination details and to get your Passport to Read stop by the Children's Desk at the library beginning July 3.
